

Soul Food Explained

...it's so much more than just coffee

Soul Food Community Cafe

(the place where you buy the coffee)

Soul Food Christian Community

(the way we live our lives together as believers - we're a uniquely shaped church)

WHO OWNS SOUL FOOD COMMUNITY CAFE?

These guys.

WOW. THAT CHURCH MUST BE REALLY RICH.

Only in the love of Christ. As for the dollars, Soul Food Community Cafe is actually a 'Not for Profit'...and far from rolling in it - we're still paying off our set-up costs.

HANG ON. IF THEY DON'T HAVE OODLES OF MONEY HOW DO THEY PAY THE STAFF?

Many of the staff are volunteers and this is an important part of how we show our customers we love and value them. To keep up a consistent business we do have some paid staff, but regardless of who is serving you a coffee or wiping your table - they're doing it as an act of love.
